M. E. CONFERENCE

Lay Members Meet With Those of the Cloth.

Dr. Gen. Rev. Watters, Gen. W. H. Odell and S. B. Sackett Delegate to Gen'l Conference.

Friday morning's session opened at 8:30 with a devotional meeting led by Bishop Vincent. He then gave an expository lecture on Paul's Epistle to Timothy. Early as was the hour the church was filled with persons anxious to hear this splendid lecture.

At 9:30 the business session commenced. Secretary Lewis read the minutes of the last session, which were approved and adopted.

Presiding Elder Watters, of Salem district, read his report of the year's work. This district includes 26 churches. Several new churches have been built, over $4,000 of church debts paid and some new parsonages built.

Most of the pastors have done good work. Two only proving not adapted to the pastorate and have withdrawn from the church.

Willamette University has closed a prosperous year and has the best of prospects for the year to begin Monday next.

Rev. Chas. L. McPherson, a minister from the church South, was received into this conference, also Joseph Matershead, from the Ohio conference.

The following visitors were introduced to the conference: Rev. L. E. Rockwell, of Portland Centenary church; Rev. Landon, of Idaho; Rev. Lucas and Rev. Stacy A. Smith, from Minnesota; David Leach, also a transfer.

Dr. Clausland, from China, and Miss Brown, a deaconess from Spokane, were also given recognition by the conference.

Dr. John K. Morris, of the Boston School of Theology, spoke for a few minutes in the interests of that institution.

Miss Brown, a deaconess, spoke briefly of the work of the Deaconess Home.

There are now 850 deaconesses and 67 homes, hospitals, orphanages, boy's farms, etc. The work of the Deaconesses is similar to that of the Sisters of Charity, but they are not bound by any vows.

Business was resumed and S. W. Stryker withdrew from the ministry on account of ill health. The secretary was instructed to send him a kindly greeting and the regrets of the conference at his withdrawal.

The character of the supernumerary and supernumerary preachers were examined and passed.

At 11:30 the election of two delegates conference. The first ballot resulted as follows: Ballots cast, 74; necessary to a choice, 38; Dr. Gue 36, Rev. Ford 30, Rev. Summerville 19, Rev. Watters 30, and many scattering.

Second ballot: Dr. Gue 44, Ford 33, Watters 37. Dr. Gue was declared elected, and another ballot taken to elect a second delegate resulted as follows: Watters 33, Ford 23. No election. Third ballot called resulted as follows: Watters 37. He was declared elected. Reserve: Ford and Summerville.

Adjourned at 12:30 p. m. Last evening at 8 p. m. Bishop Vincent delivered his lecture on "Tom and His Friends."

FELDAY AFTERNOON. Dr. Wm. Kykendall chosen chairman and by acclamation.

Prayer was offered by Rev. M. C. Wre of Albany.

A. M. Smith, of Portland, was elected secretary.

Committees on credentials and order of business were appointed.

It was decided to ballot for delegates without nominations.

Committee on resolutions was appointed.

Recess of ten minutes was taken until the various committees should be ready to report.

After recess order of business was taken up and committee on credentials reported sixty delegates present.

Committee on order of business reported.

Election of delegates was taken up and it was voted to nominate by ballot. The result of the nomination brought the following names before the conference: Mr. Sackett, of Jefferson; Dr. O. Royal, of Portland; J. B. Easter, of Portland; Dr. Cathey, of Woodburn; E. H. Holman, of Drain; W. H. Odell, of Salem; Prof. W. C. Hawley, of Salem; Mrs. Ferguson, of Astoria; Mr. Mott, of Jefferson.

The elective ballot was then called for, resulting in no election. A second ballot was then called for, resulting in the election of General W. H. Odell, of Salem.

Another ballot was taken to elect the second delegate, no election being made; balloting was continued until the choice rested upon S. B. Sackett, of Jefferson.

The committee on resolutions offered a resolution in favor of equal representation of ministers and laymen in the general conference.

Although women are not now eligible to a seat in the general conference they are admitted to the lay-electoral conference and of the 60 members of this session twelve are women.

By request of the lay conference the bishop consented to address the body at 8:30 a. m. Saturday.

The alternate delegate to the general conference are W. C. Hawley, and E. H. Holman.

The resolution committee offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas the women of the Methodist church bear more than half of the burden of the church, both physical and financial.

Therefore, be it resolved that they ought to have the right of equal representation with men in the highest councils of the church."

The lay conference then adjourned to meet at 8:30 a. m. Saturday to hear the bishop's address all business having been concluded at the session just closed.

The anniversary of the Woman's Home Missionary society was held at 3 p. m. Friday and was a very interesting meeting. The address was given by Rev. L. E. Rockwell, of Centenary church, Portland.

Mrs. A. S. Mulligan, of Mount Tabor, presided.

Messdames Parsons, Lee, Grannis, Bennett and Matershead also had seats upon the platform, they being the conference officers of the society.

SATURDAY MORNING. The lay conference met with the ministers and listened to the address by Bishop Vincent.

Dr. Wm. Kykendall, the chairman of the lay conference, was called to a seat on the platform. Robt. Booth presented the delegate in a neat speech.

W. H. Odell and S. B. Sackett, the delegates elected to the general conference, were called forward and introduced. "Blest Be the Tie" was sung and then the bishop gave his address, after which Gen. Odell and S. B. Sackett each spoke for a few minutes.

At 10:10 the business session opened with reading of the minutes of the last session, corrected and adopted.

The place of holding the next conference was discussed and Ashland and Grants Pass were named. Ashland was chosen. Routine business was then transacted.

Mrs. W. R. Winans spoke for a few minutes in behalf of the Woman's Home Missionary Supply committee.

Reports of committees were read and adopted.

Adjourned at 11:40 a. m.

FAIR CLOSED.

Last Night Saw the Windup for This Year.

Fine Weather but Small Attendance Throughout.—Exhibits Being Removed.—Yesterday's Races.

The fair closed last night, if not in a blaze of glory, at least with a sight of satisfaction on the part of all concerned.

As an exhibition of the resources of the state of Oregon it cannot be said that the fair has been a success. Probably only people lately from other states can realize how far below a success it has really been.

It is very evident that there is a screw loose somewhere, perhaps several of them; just what they are it should be the study of the new state fair board to find out.

There have been some good exhibits in each department. There have been some good races, although no fast time has been made. But on the whole the fair must have been disappointing to one who expected something worthy of a state of Oregon's natural resources.

The weather has been most favorable throughout the fair. The attendance has been discouragingly slim. One reason has been that the harvest field and hop yards have held people away, and if the fair had been one week later there is no doubt that the attendance would have been much larger.

SALEM GETS THE HONOR. State Representative of the Inter-State University Chosen.

Oregon has a dozen or more branches of the Inter-State University of music, and from among this number one person was to be chosen as state representative. This honor has fallen to a Salem musician of whom our entire city is proud, being none other than Mrs. Etta Anders-Willman, who has so faithfully represented the institution in Oregon for several years. It is a national co-operative institution which is beginning to number its faculty by hundreds and its pupils by thousands, embracing more than twenty states.

Mrs. Willman's school has been crowded with business to such an extent that no vacation season was possible this summer, even more pupils are coming in now that the fall season is here, and the school is in a prosperous condition. The Saturday musicals and public recitals will be resumed in the near future and made an attractive feature of the year's work, as two elegant new pianos have been supplied the studio.

Floated. E. Cameron, who was released from the penitentiary yesterday on the expiration of his term, preceeded to celebrate. But his system was more susceptible to the influence of the cup that liberates than he figured on, and it took four men and a wheelbarrow to convey him to the city lockup. This morning he appears before Recorder Judah and was floated.

Modern Woodmen. Attention! All members of Oregon Cedar Camp No. 5249, are requested to be present at the meeting this (Saturday) evening at 8 o'clock, as business of importance will be up for action.

J. M. Chase, V. C.

F. D. Dempsey, of Rickreall, was in town today on business and reports that the hops on his place will all be cleaned up today. He has picked nearly 700 boxes from his 9 acre yard. The quality is very fine.

Rev. W. E. Copeland has gone to Albany where he will preach Sunday morning, and will return in season for the evening service at his church in this city.

Chief Justice C. E. Wolverton went to Albany today, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Such, of San Francisco, who have been guests at the Wolverton home.

Miss Mina Murton, of Portland, is the guest of Miss Mary Parmenter, who was her teacher at the state school last year. Deputy sheriff John Eaton went to Woodburn on the afternoon train on business connected with his office.

H. A. Kenne, who has been attending the M. E. conference, returned to Stayton today.

C. A. Whale, the piano operator, came up from Portland today.

Armin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowersox, is reported quite ill.

LADY OF LYONS.

The Old Romantic Drama is Presented by the Shirley Company.

If Pauline was really as nice as Jessie Shirley represents her to be, it is no wonder that Lyons went wild over her and that Madame Deschappelles thought her daughter might aspire to the hand of a prince.

As Claude Melnotte, Frank R. Clayton had the leading part, which has not fallen to him here before, and he handled it with the touch of a genuine artist.

These two were given a curtain call after the second act, and again after the fourth, when five beautiful bouquets were handed over the footlights.

Lincoln J. Plummer gave a faultless representation of the bluff and honest soldier, Colonel Dumais. To see this actor handle the widely varying characters of a banker; Pumpernickel, the servant; Jethro Baxter, the farmer; Tuffy in Trilby; and Colonel Dumais; is to know him as a first-class all-round actor.

Ralston filled his three parts with pleasing versatility.

Marie Baker as Madame Deschappelles took a large share of the honors.

In fact the old and highly romantic play was presented by this talented little company in a way that made it seem realistic and captured the fullest approbation and applause.

The house was full, and this will also undoubtedly be true of this evening, when the engagement closes with the comedy drama, "A Clever Fool."
